

How to change your consent status for the Privacy Notice used by Advisers of Studies

You will be prompted to give consent for your assigned Adviser of Studies, or Advising Team, to share personal data provided to support you during your studies. Your Adviser, or Advising Team, uses data to provide you with curriculum and academic support, as well as pastoral care matters.

If you wish to change your consent status which allows your Adviser, or Advising Team, to share relevant personal data, you can do this on MyCampus using the following steps.

1. Log in to MyCampus and select the Personal Information tile from the Student Homepage.

2. Select Adviser Privacy Flag from the dropdown list on the left.

Adviser Privacy Flag

I consent to the University processing my personal data for the purposes detailed in the Adviser Privacy Notice

Allow Consent?

Yes No

SAVE

For full details of this policy see here.

3. You can change your consent status by selected Yes or No on 'Allow Consent?', and clicking save.